MR. FRYE'S BOMB SHELL.

WHICH CAUSED A HOT DISCUSSION.

Proposition to Change the Basis of Representation--Thumping the South and Bringing Back Some Red Hot Replies.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.--The warm debate in the Republican National Committee meeting was very exciting and more heated than the first outline telegraphed to the newspapers would indicate, as the following more detailed account shows.

Senator Frye, on presenting his plan for a new basis of representation, earlier in the day, supported it with a vigorous speech. He said it presented a subject demanding honest and conscientious attention. When any politician made a proposition to change the form of the National Convention, every man who was a candidate for President, or who had one, immediately sniffed at it. He denied that he offered the new plan in favor of the interests of Mr. Blaine and in opposition to the interests of Mr. Arthur. He had not a candidate, and he never again would have one. Mr. Frye then quoted statistics to show that the representation from the Southern States, which were anti-Republican, was nearly as large as that from States surely Republican, and argued that his proposition was in the interest of absolute justice, which the National Committee could not afford to deny.

Mr. Forster (Mass.) briefly supported the proposition submitted by Mr. Frye, stating that the country would criticize the party if it refused to inaugurate reform in the organizing of the Convention.

When the Committee re-assembled at 7 P. M. discussion began over a point of order, which had been raised, that as the Committee had in February last agreed upon a basis of representation, it could not now change that plan. Secretary Chandler spoke against the point of order, holding that the Committee had the power to change the basis. Senator Logan denied that the Committee had the power; the National Convention only had such power. Mr. Chandler, continuing, appealed to the members of the South and from the Territories to vote for the Frye plan, arguing that it was demanded by the sentiment of Republicans in Republican States. General Bradley, of Kentucky, favored the position taken by Senator Logan. In reply to a taunt that the South could not give a single electoral vote to the Republican candidate, he said that if the Republican party of the North had given to the South the care and attention it gave to doubtful states North, the South would furnish electoral votes. It had given lives for the good of the party. Dr. Hicks (Fla.) said there were graveyards miles long in the South, filled with murdered Republicans. Mr. Pierce (R. I.) was sorry to see the debate take such a wide course and feared if it was reported in the newspapers it would delight the Bourbons of the country. The South had given us a President in 1876. He did not favor departing from the present plan. After further expressions of opinion from various members of the Committee, Mr. Magee (Pa.) moved, and Mr. Reynolds seconded the motion, to refer Senator Frye's plan to the next Republican Convention. The vote on this motion resulted as follows: Yes, 25; no, 18.

The following call was then adopted: A National Convention will meet at Chicago on Tuesday, June 3, 1884, at noon for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election. The Republican electors of the several States and all other voters, without regard to past political differences, who are in favor of elevating and glorifying American labor, protecting and sustaining home industries, giving free popular education to the masses of the people, securing free suffrage and an honest counting of the ballots, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the land by maintaining a National Government pledged to these objects and principles, are cordially invited to send from each State four delegates at large, from each Congressional District two delegates, and for each representative at large two delegates to the Convention. The delegates at large shall be chosen by popular delegate State Conventions, called on not less than twenty days published notice, and held not more than sixty days before the time fixed for the meeting of the National Convention. The Republicans of the various Congressional Districts shall have the option of electing delegates at separate popular delegate conventions, called on similar notice, and held in the districts at any time within the fifteen days prior to the meeting of the State Conventions, or by subdivision into District Conventions; and such delegates shall be chosen in the latter method if not elected previous to the meeting of the State Conventions. All State Conventions shall be accredited by the officers of such District Conventions. Two delegates shall be allowed from each Territory and from the District of Columbia, similarly chosen. Notices of contests shall be given to the National Convention, accompanied by full printed statements of the grounds of contest, which shall also be made public; and preference in the order of hearing and determining contests shall be given by the Convention according to the dates of the reception of such notices and statements by the National Convention. The Committee then adjourned to meet in Chicago, May 31st, 1883.

Fire in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 13.--Early Wednesday morning Reave's Block, occupied by P. Hardenburg & Co., saddlery and hardware, and next to the Drake Block, which was burning, caught fire, and was entirely destroyed. The loss on Reave's Block and contents is $115,000; insurance about the same. The whole building was occupied by Hardenburg & Co.

The O'Donnell Worry.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.--Hon. "Nick" Muller and others, in response to additional appeals from Irish citizens in New York, called upon the President to endorse the action of the committee who have previously urged the Executive to interfere in behalf of O'Donnell.

Seizure of Arms in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Dec. 13.--The police have seized a number of arms and a large quantity of powder, which they found at the residence of a man named Dunne, who is alleged to be a prominent Nationalist. Dunne has been arrested.

TRIBUNE PRINTERS OUT.

Another Vigorous Strike in Progress in New York City.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.--Another strike of compositors took place Wednesday evening in the New York Tribune office, and, with the exception of Thompson, the foreman, and about half a dozen compositors, all the men left the office. Since the recent strike the Tribune has been a "Union" office, paying forty-six cents per thousand ems. The men claim that everything went along smoothly until about a week ago, when they noticed Thompson was negotiating with non-Union men from out of town, and they claim that he intends to "rat" the office as soon as possible. He told several Union men that there was no more work for them and filled their places with non-Union men. Mr. O'Donnell, President of Typographical Union No. 6, was informed of the condition of affairs and ordered the men out. Thompson claims he has enough non-Union men to get the paper out and that everything will be working smoothly again in a day or two. The office is guarded by a large force of policemen.

KEELY'S DISCIPLES.

Meeting of the Directors of the "Motor" Company in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 13.--The stockholders of the Keely Motor Company held their annual meeting Wednesday in the office of the Company, on Walnut street. President Randall stated that the Board of Directors appeared before the stockholders without a written report. "We have several reasons for this, the principal cause being that any report at this time might do Mr. Keely a great injustice." He then read a long letter from Mr. Keely, in which that gentleman expressed regret at the delay in the completion of his labors, &c. The letter concludes: "I will say, however, that I do not see why I may not fulfill your expectations within the next two months, and I would suggest the meeting of stockholders be postponed to February 1, 1884." In pursuance of the request of the inventor, Mr. Randall moved the meeting proceed at once to an election of Directors for the ensuing year, and adjourn without further action until February 1. The motion prevailed, and the following Directors were elected for the ensuing year: Joseph Annin, Radcliffe Baldwin, George B. Collier, A. R. Edry, Frank G. Green, E. J. Randall, and John J. Smith.

The Dry Goods Trade.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.--The market for dry goods has presented few new features worthy of mention. There is only a small representation of package buyers in town, and they are very cautious in their operations, which are mainly confined to the purchase of such small lots of seasonable goods as are required for immediate distribution. Some fair orders are, however, being placed with agents for a few fabrics adopted to the spring trade, in which connection dress goods, shirtings, prints, white goods, etc., are doing pretty well. Jobbers report a moderately increased trade in some kinds of domestics and prints, and department goods are moving in fair quantities, aside from such heavy winter fabrics as flannels, blankets, woolens, etc., for which the demand continues very moderate.

Heavy Failure in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.--J. P. Billups & Co., cotton commission merchants and exporters, at 16 Exchange Place, have temporarily suspended, with liabilities about $600,000; assets about $500,000. The financial affairs of the firm have been under a cloud for some time past, owing to several of their bills of exchange having been protested for non acceptance. The firm had been doing a large business, but the late disastrous failures in Liverpool cotton trade seriously involved them. All but $200,000 of the liabilities are secured by good collateral in cotton, stocks, bonds, &c., and for the balance they have assets to pay with, but the value is not yet known.

THE EMMA BOND CASE.

A Highly Sensational Scene in the Court Room.

HILLSBORO, Ill., Dec. 13.--Little progress was made in the Emma Bond trial Wednesday, the Court adjourning after the opening pleas for the prosecution had been made. Miss Bond made her appearance in Court for the first time, pale and nervous. When Montgomery, one of the defendants, saw her he attempted to raise his hat to hide his face, but trembled so that it fell to the ground. The sight of Montgomery was too much for Miss Bond, who fainted and was carried from Court unconscious.

The "Salvation" Tramps in the Police Court Again.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 13.--The Salvation Army, including three men and three women, among the former, a Yale divinity student, was arraigned in the City Court Wednesday for violation of city ordinances which prohibit the beating of drums, blowing of horns, etc. After long argument by counsel on both sides, and a promise from the "Army" not to parade until Friday, Judge Deming adjourned the case until Friday when he will render his decision.

A Terrible Death.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.--James Burke, aged thirty, fireman in the engine room of the Fuller Electric Light Company met with a frightful death. His clothes became entangled in the sixteen inch belt connecting the big engine with the machinery. He was whirled over the wheel against a stone wall, torn limb from limb, and disemboweled. His remains, which were scattered about the room, were gathered up and taken to the morgue.

Bishop Gilmour Successful.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 13.--The Supreme Court has decided the important case of Bishop Gilmour, of this diocese, against the Treasurer of this County, to restrain the latter from collecting taxes levied on parochial school property. The case has been before the courts for the past eight years. The Common Pleas and District Courts sustained the Bishop; and the Supreme Court has just affirmed the decision of the lower courts.

Nominations Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13.--The Senate in executive session confirmed the following nominations: Seth Ledyard Phelps, to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Peru; William W. Thomas, Jr., to be Minister Resident to Sweden and Norway; Henry White, to be Second Secretary of Legation at London; Farley, to be Collector of Internal Revenue for the Second District of Kentucky.

A FERRY BOAT ON FIRE.

THRILLING SCENES IN EAST RIVER.

A Boat Catches on Fire at Her Slip and Burns Up Like a Flash of Gun Cotton--Some Exciting Episodes.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.--The ferry boat Garden City, of the East River Ferry Company, caught fire and burned at noon at the foot of James' Slip. Several horses were burned, but all the passengers and employees escaped. The boat is a wreck, and was valued at $100,000, partly insured. The Garden City left the slip at 11:35, starting for Long Island City. She had gone barely three lengths, heading up the stream, when flames were seen bursting from the deck above the boiler. Pilot Nelson promptly reversed the engine and backed into the slip, but so rapid was the spread of the flames, before he reached the bridge the cabin was in flames from end to end. In a desperate jump for the bulkhead of the ferry slip to save himself, the pilot dislocated his shoulder, but fell out of the reach of the flames. The engineer, Samuel Tracy, ran through the flames and reached the deck with his clothing ablaze. His shirt was burned from his body and his hair singed. James Keel, the fireman, finding escape to the deck cut off, squeezed through the port hole and dropped overboard into the river. He was hauled out and saved. The dozen passengers, and ferry hands who were on board saved themselves by jumping to the bulwarks of the ferry slip, or by dashing through the flames to the bridge. All escaped as far as known. Two sugar house trucks, from Haveney's sugar house, on the boat, and there were other wagons on the boat, and it said several teams jumped overboard in their fright. The fire started near the boiler, and broke out so suddenly that no adequate explanation of its origin is at hand. But it is supposed the heated boiler set fire to the dry wood surrounding it, hence the blaze and sudden fury.

GRAVEYARD INSURANCE.

Some Startling Developments Near at Hand in Massachusetts.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Dec. 13.--The city is full of startling developments concerning graveyard insurance. The cases of several parties have been before the Grand Jury at New Bedford several days, and warrants for arrests of several persons have been issued. Two, whose names have been most freely mentioned, Dr. Hennessey and the agent, Edward Driscoll, Jr., can not be found by the police. Two others, Alderman Barret, a member of the State Democratic Convention, and James Kirby, a nurse, were arrested last night for conspiracy to defraud and held in $500 each.

The French Labor Delegates.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 13.--The French labor delegates to-day visited Yale College, the City Hall and a few other places of note and were courteously received. They were refused permission to go through Sargent & Co's large hardware factory and the establishment of the Winchester Arms Company. They said they wished to form an international society of workmen, and while they regretted the refusal of manufacturers to allow their places to be visited, they did not desire to provoke comment.

Sad Accident in Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 13.--"Stop the engine!" shouted one of the girls, in Julius J. Woods' starch factory, Wednesday morning. It was too late, Mary Grieneraber, only twenty, in stepping over a revolving shaft a foot from the floor, failed to carefully raise her clothes so as to clear it. They caught about the shaft and wound rapidly up, throwing her violently to the floor, killing her almost instantly. She was a pleasant girl, and quite a favorite with her young companions. Her family were immediately notified.

Supposed Wife-Murdered Exonerated.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Dec. 13.--The Coroner's Jury finished hearing evidence in the case of Mrs. Eckert, supposed to have been killed in a quarrel by her husband and left in a burning house to be destroyed by fire. After some deliberation they returned with a verdict that the deceased came to her death by her own carelessness and fully exonerating her husband with any complicity in the matter. Eckert was immediately released and received the warmest congratulations of his friends.

New York Business Trouble.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.--The Sheriff has seized the factory of the Fabric Ornamenting and Manufacturing Company, at 550 West Twenty-fifth street, on execution amounting to $7,007. The Company was incorporated in 1881 with a capital of $350,000. The plant is valued at about $60,000.

The Schedule of L. A. Dow & Lomas.

wholesale dealers of hats, at 667 Broadway, were filed, showing liabilities of $73,276, nominal assets $61,233; actual assets $35,490.

Bennett and Wife.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 13.--Edward J. Bennett and his wife Eleanor, awaiting trial for arson, filed an affidavit of prejudice and moved for a change of venue to the Circuit Court. Under a recent ruling of the Supreme Court the request could not be denied. The case, therefore, will go over to the January term. Bennett and wife are still unable to get bail.

The Irish National Convention.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 13.--The Irish State Convention adjourned after organizing a State Council and adopting resolutions deprecating the use of English manufactures and urging encouragement of Irish industrial and educational interests and approving revolutionary measures if believed necessary.

Our National Reformers.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 13.--The National Reform Convention met here Wednesday, and President John R. Brunot, of Pittsburg, presided. A general committee has been appointed. The Association is composed of pious people laboring to ingraft Christianity into all the social, political, and other institutions of the country.

The Kentucky Whisky Men.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13.--The Kentucky delegation have agreed to wait upon Secretary Folger in a body, and ask him to favor whisky bond extension for a term of two years. They say if they can not get the Secretary's influence they will concentrate their efforts with the view of having the tax on whisky abolished.

SENATORIAL CAUCUS.

General Anson G. McCook Chosen Secretary of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.--The Republican Senators met in caucus Thursday, and, after a long discussion, decided to place in nomination the name of General Anson G. McCook, of New York, to be Secretary of the Senate. The name of General McCook was presented by Senator Miller (N. Y.). George C. Gorham, by Senator Jones (Nevada); Daniel Ransdell by Senator Harrison (Indiana). Several ballots were cast, and the last ballot gave McCook six majority. General McCook was then declared to be the choice of the caucus for the Secretaryship. The discussion respecting the two principal candidates for the Secretaryship was very decided, but, in the language of a gentleman who was present, did not approach a quarrel. The Senators from Massachusetts and Connecticut defeated Mr. Gorham for the place. They said many pleasant things about the gentleman, however, but referred to the fact that the newspapers throughout the country opposed him, and, in consequence thereof, considered it bad policy to place his name in nomination. They also maintained that Mr. Gorham's selection would, in all probability, result in defeating the Republican party in Massachusetts and Connecticut.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

New York Comments on the Republican Convention.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.--Referring to the designation of Chicago for the Republican National Convention, the World says: "A number of people attach principal significance to the location of the convention, arguing that western candidates will have a better chance than if the convention had been located in the east. It was understood that the friends of the administration preferred an eastern city, so what was called the 'Blaine influence' turned about and united with the Logan strength in favor of Chicago."

Times: "There is less political significance in the selection of Chicago than there would have been in the choice of any other that was urged upon the attention of the committee."

Sun: "Logan set out yesterday to beat the administration. He succeeded. Chandler hauled down his flag and surrendered. 'Let there be no struggle over the matter of the Chairman,' he said. His request was granted."

COMMERCIAL CABLE COMPANY.

Articles of Incorporation Filed in Albany, New York.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 13.--The Commercial Cable Company was among the certificates of incorporation just filed with the Secretary of State. Its objects are to build land lines along all the coasts of the United States and Nova Scotia, and to lay cables to any part of the coasts of Europe, West Indies, South America, Japan and China, and also to build a land line from New Haven to Paris and from New York to the Republic of Mexico. The Association has also the privilege of opening offices in all parts of the United States and to increase its capital stock at will. The capital stock now is $4,000,000, half of which is held by John W. Mackey and the remainder is divided between Isaac Bill, Committees of the Mexican veterans submitted to Speaker Carlisle the names Townsend, of Illinois; Le Fevre, of Ohio; Holman, of Indiana, and Brodhead, of Missouri, with the statement that if either of them be appointed Chairman of the Committee of Pensions, he, in their opinion, would fully advance the interests of the veterans in the matter of pensions.

That the public schools do not exist for the special benefit of the book-makers is a proposition which will perhaps be considered unreasonable by those enterprising gentlemen. A correspondent of the Cleveland Herald complains that school books cost more to the consumer than they did in 1860. Their cost is at present a matter of widespread dissatisfaction, and the rapid multiplication of them is equally condemned.

The scarcity and high price of eggs of which many are now complaining is not chargeable to the hens, but to a "corner" in eggs made during the fall months by speculators buying up through the country and storing them for higher prices but it is now probable, that these same speculators will be glad to sell their stock at lower figures than actual cost. New York dealers are now handling eggs from Germany, several consignments having been received already, and it is now predicted eggs will be plentiful and cheap and that the stock stored in refrigerators will be put upon the market.

ADDRESS TO A CAT.

Sweet warbler, when the radiant moonlight falls
In mellow splendor on the haunted shed,
Oft have I listened to thy plaintive wail,
And cursed thee from my sleep-deserted bed.
How have I wept to hear thy long drawn shout.
"Maria! Oh-ha Ma-ri-a! Comin' on-out!"
Why dost thou rage, valia cat, when sable night
With dewy freshness fills the silent air?
Why dost thou climb the roof to yell and fight,
And rip and spit and snort and claw and sneer?
Dost thou not blush, sweet cat, when rosy dawn
Sees half thy fur clawed out, and one eye gone?

Masonic Banquet.

Thursday evening a most enjoyable banquet was held at the lodge room of Maysville Commandery No. 10, Knights Templar. Sir Knights from Carlisle, Millersburg, Covington and Lexington were present. Sir Knight Dr. Henderson, of the M. E. Church, South, made the welcoming address, after which all repaired to the banquet hall, where a bountiful supper was spread. The table seated about seventy-five or eighty persons, and literally groaned beneath its pile of luxuries. After blessing by Sir Knight Dr. Gould, everybody went in for the purpose of satisfying the inner man, and after that the second table was served. Even the orange groves of Florida and the islands of the sea furnished the guests with fruits, nuts and flowers. After supper the toasts were many and beautiful, and could you have heard the toast of Sir Knight Bassett, it would have carried you back to the days of Cicero. The toast of Sir Knight Gould was beautiful as a humming bird, and the toasts of Sir Knights Henderson and Boring were very enjoyable, and so it was with all toasts of the Sir Knights. The benediction of Sir Knight Henderson closed the feast. The music by the Maysville band was exquisitely rendered. The entertainment lacked only one thing to make it the most enjoyable of any banquet the writer ever attended, and that is the absence of fair ladies, the wives and daughters of the gallant Sir Knights. There were no wines. Vox.

A Mound Opened.

Prof. Norris, the ethnologist, who had been examining the mounds in this section for several months, the other day opened the big mound on Col. B. H. Smith's farm, six or eight miles below here. This is the largest mound in the valley, and proved a rich store house. The mound is fifty feet high and they dug down to the bottom. It was evidently the burial place of a noted chief, who had been interred with unusual honors. At the bottom they found the bones of human beings measuring seven feet in length and nineteen inches across the shoulders. He was lying flat, and at either side, lying at an angle of about forty-five degrees, with their feet pointed towards the chief, were other men—on one side two and on the other lay another man, with his hands extended towards him and wearing two bracelets of copper. On each of the chief's wrists were six copper bracelets, while a looking glass of mica lay at his shoulder, and his garter of copper rested on his breast. Four copper bracelets were under his head, with an arrow in the center. A house twelve feet in diameter and ten feet high, with a ridge pole one foot in diameter had been erected over them and the whole covered by the dirt that had formed the mound. Each of the men buried there had been enclosed in a bark coffin.

Card.

Circumstances will probably require my removal from Maysville about the first of January, and I therefore withdraw from the race for assessor. I return my sincere thanks to all who have kindly supported me in the contest.

CHARLES H. WALZ.

A Card.

During my absence in the South, my insurance business will be conducted by O. T. Poyntz, who will continue to offer indemnity in first class companies at extremely low rates. Jno. B. Poyntz, Jr., Maysville, Dec. 14, 1883. d14d3t

Come to Stay.

A report is in circulation that I have withdrawn from the race for City Marshal. I wish to inform my friends that I am still on the track and will remain there until the close of the polls.

JAMES HANSON.

British Avenue.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The hurricane Tuesday caused vessels to break drift in the harbor at Belfast, South Shields, Portsmouth and elsewhere, and did much damage to shipping as well as to buildings in various cities in England and Ireland. Several persons were killed in the streets. The British ship Liverpool, from Quebec, for Greenock, went ashore during the gale, near Stranraer, Scotland. Out of her crew of twenty only two were saved. The Captain, Davidson, is believed to be among the lost. The vessel is almost a total wreck.

DUBLIN, Dec. 13.—During the trial of Elliott and others Wednesday for the murder of Mrs. Smyth an exciting scene occurred in the Court room. Mr. O'Brien, Q. C., counsel for the Crown, called Mr. Boyd, Q. C., of the prisoner's counsel, a coward. He was sternly rebuked by the presiding Judge, and compelled to retract his language.

The Faithless Anita.

VINCENNES, Ind., Dec. 13.—Edwin W. P. Smith, United States Consul to Garthage, South America, was granted a divorce from his wife Anita on the grounds of abandonment. Anita is a Spanish Mexican of rare talent and beauty. She was a woman of easy virtue and an adventurer. The ill-matched couple were married at San Francisco, at the residence of the English Consul in 1871. The divorce gives Anita $500 alimony and the charge of the children. Her attorney, were it not for a breach of professional honor, could give the world letters which would make one of the greatest sensations ever published. It is supposed that Consul Smith wrote them, and no doubt they contain his charges against her, which she did not deny in court.

The Matrimonial C. A. S.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 13.—John Washington, the crank who has been turning St. Louis upside down by proposing to marry General Sherman's daughter, and who came to this city determined to make Miss Mollie Garfield, daughter of our late President, his bride, has been adjudged insane and handed over the Sheriff, who will remove him to the Infirmary for Lunatics.

AYER'S

Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied my CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
Mrs. EMMA GENDREY."

159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.
"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CHANEY, Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Byballa, Miss., April 15, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRADON, Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

BRUTAL MURDER.

An Aged Indian Slaughtered While Defending His Wife's Honor.

GARDINER, Me., Dec. 13.—News is just received of the brutal murder of an aged Indian, known as "Old Joe," at Richmond, twelve miles south of Gardiner, while defending his wife from the assault of two drunken rowdies, named Lewis E. Hopkins and Leonard Turner. The Indian with his wife lived a short distance from the village. They were visited at night by the ruffians, who attempted to outrage the woman. The Indian, after a desperate struggle, was thrown to the ground and kicked to death by Hopkins. The murderers were arrested.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 13.—Later particulars from Richmond say that, after murdering "Old Joe," the murderers seized his wife and accomplished their heinous purpose, leaving her in a terrible condition. It is now feared she may also die from the result of her terrible injuries.

KENDALL'S
SPAVIN CURE

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

SANTA ROSA, California, Feb. 9, 1883.
B. J. KENDALL & Co.,—Gentle: I feel it a duty to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write to you. I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I tried everything without relief, but after ten day's use of Kendall's Spavin Cure, I have not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I felt at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it out open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort. With gratified surprise I wish for your success, I am faithfully yours,
J. H. GLENN.

Price $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietors, DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt. Send for illustrated circular.

THE MINISTER WHO FAILS to interest his congregation and build up his church is generally accused of being a poor preacher, or of not studying hard enough. That is not always where the trouble comes from. Dyspepsia and liver disorders are responsible for many a dull sermon and many a vacant pulpit. When the Dominie's digestive apparatus is working wrong and his nerves are giving him pain, and his brain refuses to do its duty, it is almost impossible to make or to preach a good sermon. Give your suffering minister a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. You will see its effect on next Sunday's preaching. The Rev. Mr. Zehring, of Codorus, Pa., was paralyzed, and could not walk except with crutches, until Brown's Iron Bitters made a new man of him. The Rev. Mr. White, of Rock Hill, S. C., says: "It restored me to strength and vigor." Brown's Iron Bitters is not only for the minister, but for all people.
